

Ikariótikos

Griechenland - Inseln

Notation: Birgitt Karlson, transponiert nach Martin Junghans - 08/2003

Vorspiel

The introduction consists of three staves of music in the key of D major (two sharps) and 2/4 time. The first staff features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes with a chord of f#m below it. The second and third staves contain melodic lines with chords E, A, f#m, em, and f#m. The second staff ends with the word 'Fine'.

Beginn Strophe - Strophe 4 x spielen

The first stanza begins with a melodic line on a single staff, with chords E and A. This is followed by four staves of music, each with chords f#m, em, and f#m. The fourth staff includes first and second endings, with chords em, A, and em, f#m.

Zwischenspiel

The interlude consists of three staves of music. The first staff features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes with a chord of A. The second and third staves continue the rhythmic pattern, with the third staff ending with chords f#m, E, and A.

Dann noch mal die letzten 2 Vorspielzeilen, und Schluss